Pak Irsan,

Charter will be very expensive, the team here did a check. Best we take the regular Susi Air flights from Palangkaraya, unfortunately they only fly 2 times per week.

I suggest the following for our trip

- Saturday 07.12. leave at 0930 on Susi Air regular flight from Palangkaraya to MTW, arrive mid day at MTW
- Sunday 08.12 – full day site visit, possibly look at TU facility
- Monday 09.12. leave MTW on Susi Air flight back to Palangkaraya, from there back to Jkt or BPN

Yes, this is on the weekend but would actually work quite nicely for me: minimum time spent travelling and the least office time lost for this trip.

Let me know your thoughts soonest and then we each find our way there/book the tickets.

Pak Irsan,

There is a Susi Air flight on Monday mornings from Palangkaraya to Mara Teweh so we can take that. The challenge would then be getting back on Tuesday afternoon from MTW to Palangkaraya but we are looking at some prices for a charter. Alternatively by road to Palangkaraya but I would really like to avoid such a time-consuming trip.
